Collection Request Form

Inuit are the Rights Holders of Nunavut’s cultural heritage and have the authority to control, maintain, and access it. Any requests to work with collections from Nunavut must adhere to the Rights of Indigenous Peoples as outlined in the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP)¹, the Truth and Reconciliation Commission’s (TRC) Calls to Action, and the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls (MMIWG) Final Report’s Calls to Justice.

To effectively implement UNDRIP in heritage work it is crucial to respect Indigenous Data Governance.² Research on Nunavut’s cultural heritage must be inclusive of Inuit perspectives and knowledge and align with Inuit Tapariit Kanatami’s (ITK) National Inuit Strategy for Research (NISR). Researchers are to follow the Circumpolar Inuit Protocols for Ethical and Equitable Engagement as well as any protocols and guidelines established at the community and regional levels. Recommendations and standards for implementing UNDRIP in the heritage sector can be found in the Moved to Action: Activating UNDRIP in Canadian Museums Report commissioned by the Canadian Museums Association.

Inuit Heritage Trust (IHT) was established through the Nunavut Agreement as the Inuit organization representing Nunavut Inuit interests in cultural heritage. All collection research requests are presented to IHT’s Board of Trustees for feedback and approval. Please email completed forms to IHT at Ihowse@iht.ca. Please provide copies of research results/publications/and reports to IHT.
